NEW SQUIRE IN GLENWOOD

Edwin McGraw Appointed for Fayette Side of the Village

Edwin McGraw, living in the Fayette side of the town of Glenwood, was appointed Monday by the Fayette county commissioners as justice of peace for Orange township. As soon as Mr. McGraw provides the necessary bond, he will arrange to assume the duties of the office.

On the Rush county side of the town, Green Thompson has been justice of the peace for several years, and many cases which take place just across the road in Glenwood, have had to be taken to the justice in Connersville, on account of no jurisdiction by Squire Thompson in this county.

Barberry Bushes Cause Low Yield at Carthage

Do you believe the damage done to your wheat by Black Stem Rust is often caused by the presence of nearby Barberry bushes? Through the interest and courtesy of A. B. Norris of this county, it is possible to show some surprising results in his wheat crop due to a large clump of Barberry bushes in the yard of his property southwest of Carthage.

For several years wheat raised in two fields, one hundred yards directly north of his Barberry bushes, has been practically ruined by Black Stem Rust. These two fields were in the direct path of prevailing winds from the south and southeast. This year wheat closest to the Barberry bushes was so heavily infected that the yield was estimated at less than one bushel per acre. And that farther away to the north while the wheat was attacked the yield was not affected so severely. The average yield of these fields was seven bushels per acre. The wheat was graded at the mill and the price received was below average. Four years ago a good wheat year, his yield was about the same and eight years ago the crop was a total failure. Mr. Morris in speaking of this year's crop said, "I expected between 20 and 25 bushels per acre when almost over night, rust appeared."

In direct contrast to these figures twenty-eight acres of wheat one-half mile to the south of the Barberry bushes and out of the path of prevailing winds, was absolutely free from Black Stem Rust and yielding 18 bushels per acre.

This is direct evidence against the common barberry, and similar circumstances in the county gave the same results. Rush county is not free of all its common barberry. All are urged to be on the watch for this dangerous bush, recognize it, and see that it is removed. The government, state experiment station, and county agent are doing their best to free the county of the common barberry.

ter four years with a republican trustee, but continued a republican assessor in office for another term.

The republicans had no township ticket in Washington and in Center and Jackson, the democrats won handsily, the latter township having had a republican trustee for four years.

Rushville and Ripley townships elected republican trustees and assessors and Noble also named republicans to township offices, but in Orange township the democrats won out.

Thomas J. Passwater was elected trustee in Ripley township with a majority of 280 votes over his democratic opponent Alston Vanduyne and William Henley, republican, was elected assessor by a substantial majority. There was no contest for advisory board, the three republicans—Aron O. Hill, Ozro Moore and Lathier Renegar being chosen without opposition.

J. Hampton Reeves, democrat, was elected trustee in Posey with a majority of twenty votes. He received 361 to 341 for William M. Gowydy, his republican opponent. Lowell Beach, republican, was re-elected assessor, polling 173 against 169 for his democratic opponent, Samuel Sharp. Albert L. Miller, democrat, was chosen constable without opposition, receiving 346 votes.

In the race for advisory board, the democrats won, electing Jacob Downey, 380; Robert Y. Jordan, 363 and Joseph C. Sullivan, 362. The republican vote was William C. Nelson, 304; Lawrence Price, 147, and Gernie Swain, 331.

In Walker township, the republicans sprung a surprise by electing the trustee, George Meid receiving 315 votes to 264 for his opponent, William B. Webster. The democrats elected the assessor and advisory board however. Theodore M. Wilkes, the new assessor, received 288 votes and his republican opponent, Henry D. Brooks, received 198. The members of the successful advisory board are Fred Gross, Benjamin F. Purcell and William Mitchell.

George W. Hardesty, democrat, was elected trustee of Orange township over Clarence T. Gosney by a majority of 103. Shirley E. Miller, assessor on the democratic ticket, was selected by a substantial majority over Eddie G. Thompson. Carl F. Mock, Franklin P. Wagoner and John H. Vernon, democrats, were elected members of the advisory board.

The democrats of Anderson township sprung a surprise equally as great as that in Walker township when they elected John C. Power, democrat to the office of trustee with a majority of 103. He carried the first precinct by 79 votes and the second by 24. Dora F. Jackman was his opponent. The democrats had no candidate for township assessor and William Ruddell, the republican candidate, was elected without opposition.

The republican candidates for township advisory board were victorious, however, Perry T. Innis, John W. Anderson and Cary O. Patton being elected by safe majorities. Their opponents were Clarence E. Brown, Cliff N. Winship and Thomas E. Allen.

The vote in Rushville township could not be obtained this afternoon because the precinct inspectors were late in reporting at the township trustees office to tabulate the vote. It was regarded as certain, however, that Harvey M. Cowing had been elected trustee and George T. Aultman assessor. It was also believed certain that the republican candidates for advisory board had been elected.

Henry W. Beckner, democrat, won out over Lowell C. Gartin, his republican opponent, in the race for trustee of Jackson township. The present trustee is a republican. Beckner received 162 votes to 139 cast for Gartin. Fran C. Gray, democratic candidate for assessor was also successful although he had a margin of only two. He received

TO CALL CONGRESS NOV. 20

First Measure Is Report On Reorganization Of Federal Department

Washington, Nov. 8.—Congress will be called into session November 20, it was indicated at the White House. President Harding is expected to issue the call Thursday or Friday. One of the first measures to go before this session is the report on reorganization of the federal department, it was said.

Associate Justice Mahlon Pitney of the United States supreme court, will resign from the bench, shortly after congress reconvenes, in the expected special session, it was said in reliable headquarters today.

Illness was said to be the reason for Pitney's contemplated resignation. Pitney will be the third justice to resign from the court within the last few weeks.

150 votes and his opponent, Gary Oldham, republican 148. The democratic township advisory board was also elected, Chester Cross receiving 157 votes, Jesse A. Leisure 154 and Oliver M. Siler 165. The vote for the republican candidate was Elmer F. Porter 139, Lewis B. Newhouse 134, Frank P. Jones 135.

In Center township, Charles W. Griffin, democrat, was elected trustee with a majority of 11 votes over Harvey M. Newhouse. He lost the first precinct by 20 votes, receiving 174 to Newhouse's 194, but carried the second precinct by 31 votes. John T. Mayse was elected assessor on the democratic ticket over William A. Lord by a small majority and the democratic advisory board candidates—Walter Bitner, James W. Rhodes and Camillus A. Bowen, were all elected.

The republicans had no ticket in Washington township and the successful democrats were Edson L. Aiken, trustee, Francis M. Gordon, assessor; Omer S. Greenwood, James Baird and Fred F. Reddick, advisory board.

The whole republican ticket was elected in Noble township, Charles G. Carney winning the office of trustee over Wilbur E. Logan with a majority of 76 votes. Edgar Morris was elected assessor over Vernon L. Spillman by a majority of 90 votes. The republican advisory board—Mont O. Sefton, William S. M. Kee and Ernest R. Titsworth, was chosen safe majorities over their democratic opponents—Charles B. Wilson, James W. Mercer and Charlie J. Smelser.

The republicans in Richland township, elected Fred Goddard trustee over Edd Moore 176 to 166, but the democratic candidate for assessor—William E. Scott was successful in the race against Ralph Brodie, receiving 207 votes to his opponent's 133. Roscoe Linville, Harold L. Beall and Arthur George, all republicans, were elected to the township advisory board receiving respectively 179, 170 and 177 votes. There were two democrats out for the advisory board, John H. Senour, who received 153 votes, and Edward O. Clark, who got 158.

Harry A. McMillin was defeated for trustee of Union township by Jesse C. Brooks, democrat, but the remainder of the republican township ticket was elected. Brooks over McMillin was 19 votes. H. Lee Wilson defeated Charles D. Hires for assessor and John C. Beaver, James S. Haselby and Howard W. Eubank were elected to the advisory board. Their democratic opponents were Daniel S. Long, Erban B. Vickery and Charles Foster.

ELLIOTT ELECTED BY A SAFE MARGIN

4,262 for Clifton. The figures for Fayette county show that Elliott secured a total of 4,388 and Clifton 3,253, which was a margin of 1,135 votes in his home county.

In Henry county, Elliott polled 1,514 votes more than Clifton with two precincts unreported.

The Union county official vote for Elliott was 1886 and Clifton 1351, with Elliott having the majority of 535 votes.

In Shelby county Clifton ran ahead of Elliott when he polled 6,541 votes and Elliott 5,440, giving Clifton the majority of 1101.

Hancock county also gave Clifton a majority of 1009 votes and Franklin county went 357 for Clifton.

Wayne county's vote, practically completed, gave Elliott a comfortable lead of 1,734 votes over Clifton.

The combined tabulation shows that in the five counties carried by Elliott, he polled a total majority of 6,050 and Clifton a total of 2,467, with a few precincts in some of the counties unreported, and giving Elliott the big lead of 3,583.

Solid Republican Delegation From Indiana Split by Democrats

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 8.—Samuel M. Ralston, democratic candidate for United States senator leads A. J. Beveridge by 12,738 on the basis of returns from 2,140 out of 3,395 precincts in Indiana. This represented a slight increase from the previous tabulation of the vote. The vote stood; Ralston 364,871, Beveridge 352,033.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 8.—Returns from 1,903 precincts out of 3,395 in Indiana showed Samuel M. Ralston, democrat, leading Albert J. Beveridge by 11,013 in the senatorial race. The count, Beveridge, 313,151, Ralston 324,164.

In the Harding landslide of 1920 Senator James E. Watson was swept into the senate by a 167,000 plurality.

In addition to electing a democratic senator, the state split its solid republican representative in congress and gave at least four seats—possibly eight—to the democrats.

Uhlrey, Lohring, John Benham and Milton Krauss, incumbents, lost their seats and Samuel Lambden, republican, seeking to succeed James Dunham was defeated by Frank Gardner, a democrat, in third district.

William Wilson, democrat, defeated Lohring in the first district. Henry Langden won from John Behnam in the fourth and Krauss was defeated by Samuel Cook in eleventh.

Four districts were still doubtful with the chances slightly favoring the republican. These were the 2nd, 5th, 12th and 13th represented now by Oscar Bland, Everett Saunders, Louis Fairfield and Andrew Hickey.

All indications were that Miss Ester Kathleen O'Keefe democratic candidate for congress in the thirteenth district, would defeat Hickey and become Indiana's first congresswoman.

Leaders in Republican headquarters were still hopeful but not optimistic. They said the state ticket would be elected by a comfortable plurality, the legislature would have a republican majority and that the returns from the farming communities might change Beveridge's apparent defeat into victory.

The democrats, however were confident and cocky. They closed the state headquarters here and went home. All through the night visitors passed through the doors of Ralston's home, congratulating him and wishing him success, while Beveridge still claimed he would win.

The first breath of victory surprised Ralston as much as anyone. He thought possibly he would run Beveridge a tight race but admitted the outcome would be in doubt until the ballots were counted.

ALL BUT TWO ON THE G. O. P. TICKET WIN

only a little more than ten per cent of the qualified voters remained away from the polls. The stay-at-homes can not be accurately calculated, however, because of the number of ballots thrown out due to irregularities in voting. The official registration for the county was 11,213.

Another singular thing about the voting in Rush county was the way certain candidates on both state tickets suffered heavy losses compared with the rest of their ticket. These candidates were the ones whose opponents were favored on marked sample ballots which were distributed secretly about Rushville a few days prior to the election.

The sample designating certain candidates for state offices as favored ones mysteriously appeared on doorsteps when Rushville people arose in the morning. They were credited to the Ku Klux Klan, but there is no confirmation from any source that the ballots were put out by representatives of the Klan.

There were three notable examples of the effect of this secret campaign against candidates. Zachariah T. Dungan, democratic candidate for clerk of the supreme court, ran 600 votes ahead of the normal democratic vote. He was favored on the marked sample ballot over Patrick J. Lynch, republican and incumbent, and carried the county over Lynch by 227. Another example is found in the vote for treasurer of state, Ora J. Davies, republican and present treasurer, who was the favored one on the mystery ballot, lead the state ticket in Rush county and piled up a majority of 3994 over George Dehority, his democratic opponent. The other case favored the democratic candidate for auditor of state, who contested with the incumbent, William G. Oliver, who apparently did not suit those who put out the marked ballots, and Oliver's majority in the county was reduced to 207.

WOMAN IS FACING DEFEAT ENDANGER G. O. P.

CONTROL OF HOUSE

Ester O'Keefe, Democratic Candidate For Congress, May Lose

South Bend, Ind., Nov. 8.—Miss Esther Kathleen O'Keefe, first woman candidate for congress in Indiana, faced defeat in the thirteenth district at noon today.

Indications were that Andrew Hickey, her republican opponent, would be sent back to congress. Unable to overcome the lead of Hickey in Elkhart and Laporte counties, Miss O'Keefe had lost her fight, after carrying Marshal and St. Joseph counties. In Kosciusko county 42 out of 43 precincts gave Hickey a majority of 2,500.

Miss O'Keefe carried St. Joseph county nearly 2,000. She lost Elkhart by 1,901 and Laporte by 1,300, according to unofficial returns.

ELECTION FLASHES

Columbus, Ohio Nov. 8.—With one third of the state out Victor Donahey has a majority of 18,555 votes over Carmi Thompson, personal friend of President Harding in the Ohio governorship race.

Congressman Simeon Fess, republican, is leading Senator Pomerene democrat, for a seat in the senate by 15,056 votes. 5,436 precincts have reported.

Chicago, Ill.—Votes in favor of light wines and beer in Chicago had a majority of 500,000.

Illinois elected nine democratic congressmen.

St. Louis—James Reed is reasonably certain of reelection this morning leading R. R. Brewster approximately 55,000 in 2,519 precincts out of 3,876.

Boston—Senator Henry C. Lodge and Col. William Gaston, democrats, were running neck and neck in senate race. With twenty-two cities and towns yet to report Lodge had a lead of nearly 8,000, party leaders claimed.

Detroit—Woodbridge Ferris, democrat candidate, for U. S. senate took a lead over Senator Charles Townsend, according to outlying precincts.

RALSTON VICTORY ADMITTED BY FOE

Ralston continued to pile up his lead over Beveridge as additional returns were received here from over the state today in the Indiana senatorial fight.

Returns from 2,159 out of 3,395 precincts in the state gave Ralston 419,633 and Beveridge 399,941, a lead of 18,692 for Ralston.

Democrats gained a strange victory in Tuesday's election, incomplete returns today indicated.

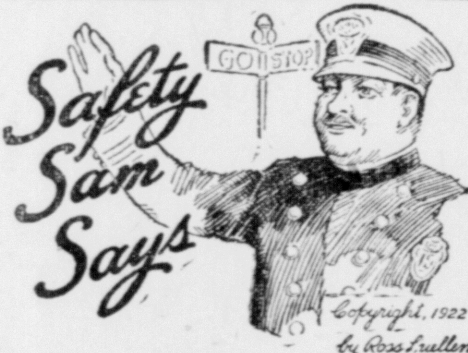

Ralston was elected to the United States senate over Beveridge, republican, by a plurality which republican sources admitted privately would exceed 15,000.

Ralston will succeed Senator Harry New, intimate friend of President Harding.

At least five republican seats in congress and possibly seven were taken by the democrats. The result was a complete reverse of the 1920 election which gave Senator Watson a plurality of 167,000 and sent a solid republican delegation of thirteen to congress.

Four incumbent congressmen lost their seats and one republican candidate was defeated. Oscar Lohring, Oscar Bland, John Benham, Milton Krauss, failed at re-election and Samuel Lambden in the third district lost to Frank Gardner, democrat. William Wilson, Arthur Greenwood, Harry Canfield and Samuel Cook will succeed the four congressmen who were unseated. They will represent the first, second, fourth and eleventh districts respectively.

Democrats Pile Up Big Leads In Many Congressional Districts, Winning Many Seats

CUT G. O. P. LEAD IN SENATE

New York, Nov. 8.—The magnitude of the democratic national sweep in Tuesday's election became fully apparent today as fairly complete returns showing the staggering reverse suffered by the Republican administration candidates.

The vote removed some of President Harding's closest personal and political friends from public life, and endangered republican control of the next house.

The gathering of returns today revealed.

That democrats have gained at least 66 seats in the next house making it necessary for them to win but 21 more to control the body.

That Republican control of the senate has been reduced from 24 to less than 15.

Contests in doubt make it impossible to fix the exact margin definitely. That Ohio, President Harding's home state on which the administration pinned its strongest hope for approval of Harding began electing a democrat governor and showing democratic congressional gains.

That New York state was swept into the Democratic columns so overwhelmingly that not only Al Smith, democrat candidate for governor, and Royal Copeland for senator, were elected but the entire state ticket and a majority of the house delegation.

That such republican strongholds as Rhode Island and New Hampshire went into the democratic procession.

That Senator Henry Cabot Lodge was endangered by defeat by Col. William Gaston in Massachusetts in the closest election that that state has seen in years. So close were they running, it was indicated the final vote count might determine the issue.

That expected Republican victories in Kansas, Indiana, New Jersey and Michigan failed to materialize.

That on the wet and dry issue there seemed to be an even break but a considerable wet gain in Congress. Illinois and Massachusetts voted wet. Ohio and California swung into the dry column.

DUNN IS DISCHARGED

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 8.—William "Sonny" Dunn wanted in Indianapolis on extradition papers for alleged participation in a series of hold-ups, was discharged from custody by Judge Phil Sullivan in circuit court here today. The court denied the right of Indianapolis officials to return Dunn to that city after his attorneys had presented evidence tending to show he was on trial in criminal court here at the time of the robberies.

ABUNDANTLY SATISFIED—
How excellent is thy loving kindness, O God! therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wing. They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house: and thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures.—Psalms 36: 7, 8.

Prize For Debt-Collecting Idea

President Harding is thinking of economic experts an opportunity to employ their talents to material profit. He is willing to give a prize to anybody who submits a concrete idea for collecting the foreign debts owed to the United States.

The Chief Executive should carry out this idea. It would prove to be quite entertaining, and would give the multitude of experts—a rare chance to apply their genius in a scientific way.

The administration does not seem to believe that the debts should be canceled. On the other hand, it sees no way to collect them, save by going to war and establishing protectorates in the debtor-lands.

When the debt question is really settled, there will be very few persons who can say "we told you so." The moment is approaching fast when an adjustment will be necessary, and the plan finally adopted will be perfected from circumstances.

Claims Resulting From the War

The United States Court of Claims, which is hearing cases in connection with various claims growing out of the war, expects that the grand total involved will exceed $2,000,000,000.

"Drug store complexions allus fade out in the wash."

The docket for the court's present term included items aggregating more than $350,000,000. Many of the cases are important, and, as might be expected, many claims are trivial and baseless.

Use of properties and inventions, damage to goods, infringement on patent rights, and uncompensated service are among the divers claims. Some claimants even seek remuneration for the adoption of ideas having value for inventive purposes.

It will be many years before obligations and troubles emanating in the war are disposed of, as it will not be easy to mete out justice and prevent imposition. Many nice doubts will arise in relation to claims.

Tuesday Night's Meeting, Cut
Short For the Election

ECONOMY TO BE PRACTICED

The city council met in a short session Tuesday night, adjourning early on account of the election. Only the urgent business and routine was followed, including the usual payment of bills.

On account of winter months, the extensive lighting of the city park will be curtailed on the middle of this month, and only about seven bulbs will be left in the park. During the summer, several strings of lights were placed throughout the park to accommodate children who wanted to play after dark, and for the benefit of campers.

Rigid economy will be practiced during the next few months in an effort to get the city finances back on a staple condition. The police force will be handled without the appointment of an additional man to take the place of Frank Nicholson, who resigned. The street department also will soon be cut for the winter, as only a few men are needed at that time.

Skin Ablaze
with Eczema
Constant Itching Almost Unbearable!

We know there is one thing that stops eczema, and that is more red blood cells! S. S. S. builds them by the million! You can increase your red blood cells to the point where it is practically impossible for eczema to exist. We know that as blood-cells increase in number, blood impurities vanish! We also know that night follows day. Both are facts! But have you, eczema sufferers, ever actually taken advantage of this wonderful fact? Thousands just like you have never thought about it! Skin eruptions, eczema with all its fiery, skin-digging torture and its soul-tearing, unrelenting itching, pimples, blackheads and boils, the all pack up and go, when the tide of blood-cells begins to roll in! Blood-cells are the fighting-giants of nature! S. S. S. builds them by the million! It has been doing it since 1829! S. S. S. is one of the greatest blood-cell builders. Blood-cleansers and body builders known to us mortals! When you put these facts together—then to continue to have eczema and skin eruptions looks more like a sin than a disease. Mrs. Arthur N. Smith, Pearl St., Newark, Ohio, writes:

"My little girl had a very bad case of eczema. She began taking S. S. S. and is well now. I thank you very much. I tell my friends what a good medicine it is. I cannot talk too much about it, for I know it is O. K."

Here is your opportunity. S. S. S. contains only vegetable medicinal ingredients. Because S. S. S. does build red blood-cells, it cures rheumatism, builds firm flesh, fills out hollow cheeks, beautifies the complexion, builds you up when you are run-down. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores, in two sizes. The larger size bottle is the more economical.

S.S.S. makes you feel like yourself again

Nov-8-15

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Nov. 8—Possibilities the boxing game provide for a willing worker and a good manager are well illustrated in the case of Willie Jackson, New York lightweight and until very recently a prominent contender for Benny Leonard's title. Jackson's financial success in the ring was made public recently by Frank "Doc" Bagley, his former manager when the pair decided to sever a business relationship that had existed for eight years.

Back in 1914 Jackson was a sixteen-year old stripling, weighing ninety-eight pounds and working as an errand boy for the large sum of $6 per week.

Like Benny Leonard and many other prominent boxers Jackson had a keen interest in the boxing game and he used to spend most of his spare time around the gymnasium and the old Fairmont Athletic Club, which was then the "garden" of New York.

Bagley was then handling a number of boxers and he saw some promise in the youngster and after some little training and tutoring he landed Jackson in a preliminary at the Fairmont, for which he received $9. His development was slow but he was carefully handled and brought along by shrewd management until 1917 when he became a headliner by knocking out Johnny Dundee in two minutes and thirty-six seconds of a bout in Philadelphia.

Dundee had never been knocked out before and he never has since that time. Jackson naturally was hailed as a prospective champion and bouts for big purses came thick and fast.

In the last three years, Bagley claims Jackson earned $250,000 of which $120,000 was brought in in thirteen months.

He began slipping last winter and perhaps he is passed the stage where he can improve, but he is still a good card and his earning power has by no means been stopped.

Benny Leonard, Jack Britton, Joe Lynch and other prominent New York boxers have become wealthy in their business because of a large personal following of friends that pack the house every time they work.

Jackson, never popular, cashed in almost as much because the house was packed every time he showed with fans who came in the hope of seeing him get the worst of it.

Both Bagley and Jackson knew of the feeling against him and instead of working to overcome it they shrewdly played it up so that he became one of the best drawing cards in New York.

How much of an attraction Jackson was is shown in the figures presented by Bagley, that in eight bouts in Madison Square Garden, he and his opponents drew in excess of $486,000. One bout with Dundee brought a gate of $46,000 from 14,000 spectators at prices of $1 to $5. Another bout with Eddie Fitzsimmons drew $66,000 and a match with Rocky Kansas brought in $88,000.

Bagley claims that their break was not caused by ill feeling and that they are still on good terms. Jackson wanted to make a trip to Australia and engage in some four-rounders in California and Bagley, having a big sale, could not afford the time, so he turned over a five year contract to Sammy Goldman, manager of Pete Herman, former bantamweight champion.

Herman by the way, is in bad shape in New York and is on the verge of total blindness. Several years ago a cataract developed on one of his eyes but he gamely stuck to his business against the advice of doctors and the results were so serious that the doctors now fear that they will not be able to save his eyes.

Herman has done well. He has made a lot of money and has invested it wisely, according to his friends, so that if he is forced to give up boxing his wife and two little girls will not be in need.

His wife insists that he shall retire from the ring if he does recover, but little Pete has an idea that he can win the bantam title again and make a record of having won a championship three times.

A MUSEMENTS

Musical Show Ends Today

"Echoes of Broadway," the musical show at the Princess will close their engagement here tonight with a complete change of program, and the show has been pronounced as the best the road show to visit Rushville in years, by the crowds that attended the opening nights.

Charlie (Slim) Timblin, the comedian and head liner for the company, is one of the best in the business and has kept the crowds in an uproar at all performances.

His "Baby Vamp" chorus is all that can be desired in a production of the kind—rather risqué as to costume, and rather riotous as to color. In duet, trio and chorus work they were equally good.

For an evening of mirth, and release from care—for a panacea from the melodramatic problem play "Echoes of Broadway" is more than successful.

In addition to the musical show the regular motion picture bill will be offered, and only one show is given, beginning at 7:15.

William Hodge in "For All Of Us"

The theatrical season in Indianapolis would be incomplete without the annual visit of William Hodge. This year occurs on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday—Nov. 13-14-15 at the Schubert-Murat Theatre.

"For All Of Us" is the title of Mr. Hodge's new vehicle. It is from the pen of the actor as were "The Road to Happiness," "Fixing Sister" and "A Cure for Curables," his offerings of the past three seasons, and according to the eastern reviewers where it has been seen, "For All Of Us" is the best of the series, having proved itself superior to anything he has done since "The Man From Home" which was one of the most sensationally successful plays in the history of the American theatre.

The story emphasizes the belief of Tom Griswald (Mr. Hodge) foreman of a gang of street laborers, that good health and happiness are the result of right thinking, and that disease of the mind and the body are curable by removing from thought all hate, passion and sin.

Fredrick Warren, enamored of his stenographer, is found ill in his home refusing further ministrations of doctors and friends. His one desire is to live as he chooses with his stenographer who has become his nurse. Tom Griswald's song and cheer from the street below, come to the banker and he sends for him, the understanding as expressed by the ditch digger causes the banker to think, and in order to free himself from the chains of sickness and sin he takes counsel from Griswald and works out his salvation.

War Mothers Keep Proceeds From Food Exchange for Local Use

Through a mistake it was reported that all of the money realized by the Rush County War Mothers off the sale of forget-me-nots and a market, last Saturday, was to be given to the national fund raised on "Forget-Me-Not Day" for the benefit of disabled war veterans.

The sum of $204.44 was realized off the sale of flowers alone and did not include the proceeds from the market. The War Mothers set their goal at $100 for the disabled veterans and since they more than doubled that amount with the sale of the little blue flowers, they decided to keep the proceeds from the food-exchange in their own treasury and use it to help the local veterans of the late war.

Many a man who has come to us for a clean and press has been asked this very question, however.

More than that—one of our regular jobs is mending tears and places where the fabric has pulled apart, in such a manner that they cannot be seen. One man after another has received months of wear out of a suit of clothes he thought ready for the "old clothes man."

CALLS FOR A COOL MILLION

Muriel McCormick Has Contract to Appear in Movies

(By United Press)

Chicago, Nov. 8.—Muriel McCormick, grand daughter of of John D. Rockefeller, who holds a contract calling for her appearance in four moving picture films for $1,000,000 has made a test film of the second act of La Tosca, which was shown to a private audience, it was learned today.

Miss McCormick, in a personal interview with her grand father obtained his consent to her venture as a movie actress.

The test was declared successful by the few who viewed the first showing.

She will appear under the stage name of Nawanna Nicor and has forbidden any mention of her true identity in connection with advertising of the films.

MATRONS, NOT THE FLAPPERS SET STYLES

Chicago, Nov. 8.—The long skirt is here to stay, according to Mme Alla Ripley, Chicago's foremost modiste.

Commenting on the protest of dean of women of leading universities that the lengthy gowns were running the physique of the co-eds, Mme. Ripley declared there was little prospect of the short skirt returning.

"The reign of the short skirt was only for a few seasons," she said, "but we can look for the long skirt fashion to continue over an extended period."

Young girls, if they do not go to extreme, will not suffer physically from the present styles, Mme Ripley stated.

"The best style skirt for street wear now is from 5 to 7 inches from the ground," she explained. "All styles allow great leeway, so that any figure or type may be sure to find something suitable."

Fashions Mme Ripley said, were governed by economic laws, rather than the rules of the dress makers, or wishes of reformers.

"The styles are set by the people who spend the most money for gowns," she said.

"The women who spend the most for clothes, are the middle-aged matrons—the socially active women who have money. The very young flapper type, haven't the money to spend, and the elderly do not care to buy any greater number of gowns."

"As a general rule, the creations which best please and suit the middle-aged woman, will be the style. The type of woman to whom I refer, appears at her best in the long skirt, and I do not expect it to be discarded for a long time."

G. A. R. POST WILL STICK TO THE END

Berlin, Wis. Nov. 8.—"Hold together as a post until the last man goes west."

This resolution was unanimously adopted by the John H. Williams Post No. 4 G. A. R., said to be the oldest post in the world, at a regular meeting.

The ten members of the post were present. The meeting was to settle finally the question of maintenance of the unit. When the question was put to a vote, ten men arose for continuance of the post.

The unit was the first to be organized in the United States, having been founded in May, 1886. For many years following the close of the civil war, this post had a large membership. The recent years have witnessed a "thinning" out of the ranks of those who once wore the "blue" and only ten members remain to "carry on."

HOW TWO WOMEN ESCAPED OPERATIONS

Doctor Advised Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Happy Results in Both Cases

St. Joseph, Missouri. — "Both of my sides swelled and hurt me so that I could not move or do any of my work. There was heavy pressure and pains through my lower organs and the doctor told me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for these troubles. He said I had this one chance, and if the Vegetable Compound did not help me nothing but an operation would. After taking several bottles I felt it was helping me and now I am able to do my own work. If my testimonial will help others I shall be glad for them to read it and hope your Vegetable Compound will do them as much good as it did me." — Mrs. Wm. Lockman, 513 N. 4th St., St. Joseph, Mo.

White Plains, N. Y. — "I had such a pain that I could hardly walk and the doctor said that I needed an operation. I was sick for a year before I started taking your medicine and I could not work. I saw your advertisement in a little book and that is how I came to take Lydia E. Pinkham's medicines. I have been taking the Vegetable Compound and Lydia E.

Pinkham's Blood Medicine, also Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and the capsules and prescription recommended. I am doing all my work and have gained twenty pounds. I am taking the medicines still, but I feel fine. You have my permission to use this letter for the good of others." — Mrs. MARY MARK, 37 Hamilton Ave., White Plains, N. Y.

Some female troubles may through neglect reach a stage when an operation is necessary. But most of the common ailments are not the surgical ones; they are not caused by serious displacements, tumors, or growths, although the symptoms may appear the same. When disturbing ailments first appear, take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve the present distress and prevent more serious troubles. Many letters have been received from women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after operations have been advised by attending physicians.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will be sent you free upon request. Write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts. This book contains valuable information.

FIRST XMAS SEAL SALE CHAIRMAN APPOINTED

Plans For 1922 Sale to Raise Funds for Next Year's Tuberculosis Work Are Well Under Way

ALL COUNTIES ORGANIZED

Indianapolis, Nov. 8.—Mrs. Lee Bowers, Huntington, holds the honor of being the first county Xmas Seal chairman appointed in the state, according to announcement today of Murray Auerbach, secretary of the Indiana Tuberculosis association. Plans for the 1922 sale to raise funds for next year's work against tuberculosis are well under way, Auerbach said. Sixty-six counties have already signed contracts with the state association for their supplies of seals.

Allen county which offered 1,500,000 seals was the first to requisition its supply, but was closely followed by Wells, ordering 100,000 and Bartholomew, ordering a quarter of a million. The Union county committee, with headquarters at Liberty, was the first organization to close its contract with the state association.

Practically all the sixty-six counties that decided on their campaigns for this year have already organized. Mrs. Bowers was the first county chairman named but her appointment reached state headquarters only a short time before two others — Mrs. J. H. Burton, Parke county and Mrs. E. B. Early of Bluffton. Early organization work, according to Auerbach augurs well for the success of this year's Xmas seal sale.

HERRIN MASSACRE MEN GO ON TRIAL

On The Outcome Of The Trial Will

Indicted Men

FEELING IS RUNNING HIGH

Trouble At Mine Started Last Of June When Miners Met To Decide Whether To Close Mine

(By United Press)

Marion, Ill., Nov. 8.—Forty-eight men charged with murder in connection with the Herrin strip mine massacre last June, were scheduled to go on trial here today.

On the outcome of the trial will hang the fate of 77 men who were indicted by the grand jury which investigated the killings.

Careful preparations were made to guard the court against any demonstration by the friends of the accused, as feeling is running high in this mining community against the prosecutors.

The prosecution is in charge of Attorney Delos Duty, assisted by Attorney General Brandage and a corps of assistants from the attorney general's office in Springfield. Attorneys hired by the United States Mine Workers of America will have charge of the defense. Circuit Judge Hartwell will preside.

Twenty-three men were killed in the massacre on June 22. All were employed at a strip mine about two miles from Herrin as strike breakers. The mine has been opened during the strike of bituminous coal miners, in violation of an agreement which had been entered into by the mine operators and union officials that no attempt would be made to work while the walkout was in progress. The mine was barricaded and armed with machine guns.

The trouble started on June 21, when the Union miners held a mass meeting in a dense woods to decide what action to take to close the mine, after protests to the company officials had failed to get results.

As the meeting was in progress, a truck guarded three men with high powered rifles, loaded down with supplies for the men working in the barricade mine, roared down the road passed the union meeting.

Miners claimed that no effort was made to molest the truck. The men on the truck declared shots were fired at them from the miners meeting and they returned the fire. Two miners in the crowd were killed. No one on the truck was hurt.

Incensed by the killing of strikers the mob surrounded the strip mine. After an all night vigil, the strike breakers led by Superintendent McDowell, a cripple, left the mine under a flag of truce, expecting a safe conduct to a railroad station.

The strike sympathizers, after escorting the strike breakers down the road a short distance, opened fire on the prisoners. The men were told to "run for it" across a field and as they fled for their lives they were mowed down by the fire from the mob's ranks.

Local authorities showed little desire to prosecute the guilty. A coroner's jury, plainly composed of union sympathizers, returned a verdict blaming the employers who attempted to operate the mines for the slayings.

A wide spread movement among chambers of commerce and other business organizations to force a prosecution, resulted in Attorney General Brandage assuming charge of the investigation. A grand jury was summoned and the indictments followed.

All of the seventy-seven men indicted have been arrested with the exception of a half dozen who are supposed to have fled the country.

ABUNDANTLY SATISFIED—How excellent is thy loving kindness, O God! therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wing. They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house; and thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures.—Psalms 36: 7, 8.

Prize For Debt-Collecting Idea

President Harding is thinking of economic experts an opportunity to employ their talents to material profit. He is willing to give a prize to anybody who submits a concrete idea for collecting the foreign debts owed to the United States.

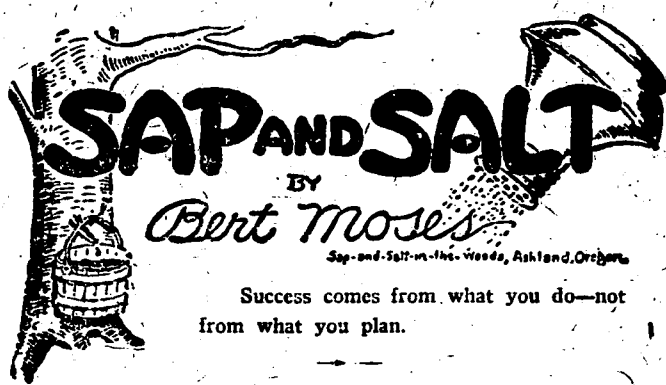

The Chief Executive should carry out this idea. It would prove to be quite entertaining, and would give the multitude of experts a rare chance to apply their genius in a scientific way.

The administration does not seem to believe that the debts should be canceled. On the other hand, it sees no way to collect them, save by going to war and establishing protectorates in the debtor-lands.

When the debt question is really settled, there will be very few persons who can say "we told you so." The moment is approaching fast when an adjustment will be necessary, and the plan finally adopted will be perfected from circumstances.

Claims Resulting From the War

The United States Court of Claims, which is hearing cases in connection with various claims growing out of the war, expects that the grand total involved will exceed $2,000,000,000.

COUNCILMEN HOLD A SHORT SESSION

Routine of Business is Taken up at Tuesday Night's Meeting, Cut Short For the Election

ECONOMY TO BE PRACTICED

The city council met in a short session Tuesday night, adjourning early on account of the election. Only the urgent business and routine was followed, including the usual payment of bills.

On account of winter months, the extensive lighting of the city park will be curtailed on the middle of this month, and only about seven bulbs will be left in the park. During the summer, several strings of lights were placed throughout the park to accommodate children who wanted to play after dark, and for the benefit of campers.

Rigid economy will be practiced during the next few months in an effort to get the city finances back on a staple condition. The police force will be handled without the appointment of an additional man to take the place of Frank Nicholson, who resigned. The street department also will soon be cut for the winter, as only a few men are needed at that time.

And Ketchum demonstrated that he can.

The lack of much celebrating last night indicated that the democrats didn't surprise themselves much.

There is a difference in ducks because the lame ones never go south for the winter.

Winning a primary and losing in the election makes defeat doubly hard to take.

Women have demonstrated that they are masters of their own destiny when they step inside the voting booth.

Secret ballots are not all confined to fraternal orders.

It may have been republican weather for voting, but the democratic variety prevailed when the count began to come in.

Charity begins at home with some folks—when they live alone.

FARMERS POST FARMS

Warsaw, Nov. 8.—With nearly 200 hunters already licensed in Kosciusko county this year, farmers by the scores are protesting trespassing on their lands. Twenty to 25 signatures are attached to advertisements appearing in newspaper and warning hunters against trespassing.

WHY THEY PARTED

"I was down with pain in my right side which at times almost crazed me. Most all of the doctors said operation. But what I want to tell you is the pain disappeared with the first dose of your medicine and I never see any since. Mayr's Wonderful Remedy has the right name—gas, sour stomach and dyspepsia have left too." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale by druggists everywhere.

The Milroy high school basketball team, which started the season here last Friday night, when they took the measure of the Rushville high school, will face a hard schedule during the coming season, but John R. Beasley, their coach, asserts that he has fair prospects for the season.

The Milroy team has three old men as a nucleus and the new men are showing up good, he says. "Our first game showed ragged playing which must be overcome before we have any great success," Coach Beasley stated.

The schedule for the Milroy team has been completed, and in the list appears some fast teams, including Columbus, Greensburg Valley Mills and Liberty. The complete schedule, as announced by the coach is as follows:

Skin Ablaze with Eczema Constant Itching Almost Unbearable!

We know there is one thing that stops eczema, and that is more red-blood-cells. S. S. S. builds them by the million! You can increase your red-blood-cells to the point where it is practically impossible for eczema to exist. We know that as blood-cells increase in number, blood impurities vanish. We also know that night follows day. Both are facts! But have you, eczema sufferers, ever actually taken advantage of this wonderful fact? Thousands just like you have never thought about it! Skin eruptions, eczema with all its fiery, skin-tingling torture and its soul-tearing, unrelenting itching, pimples, blackheads and boils, they all pack up and go, when the tide of blood-cells begins to roll in! Blood-cells are the fighting-giants of nature! S. S. S. builds them by the million! It has been doing it since 1859! S. S. S. is one of the greatest blood-cleansing, blood-purifying and body-building agents known to us mortals! When you put these facts together, then to continue to have eczema and skin eruptions looks more like a sin than a disease. Mrs. Arthur N. Smith, Pearl St., Newark, Ohio, writes:

"My little girl had a very bad case of eczema. She began taking S. S. S. and in a few days it was all over. I thank you very much. I tell my friends what a good medicine it is. I cannot tell too much about it, for I know it is O. K."

Here is your opportunity. S. S. S. contains only vegetable medicinal ingredients. Because S. S. S. does build red-blood-cells, it cures rheumatism, builds firm flesh, fills out hollow cheeks, beautifies the complexion, builds you up when you are run-down. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores in two sizes. The larger size bottle is the more economical.

S.S.S. makes you feel like yourself again

Nov-8-15

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Nov. 8—Possibilities the boxing game provide for a willing worker and a good manager are well illustrated in the case of Willie Jackson, New York lightweight and until very recently a prominent contender for Benny Leonard's title.

Jackson's financial success in the ring was made public recently by Frank "Doc" Bagley, his former manager when the pair decided to sever a business relationship that had existed for eight years.

Back in 1914 Jackson was a sixteen-year old stripling, weighing ninety-eight pounds and working as an errand boy for the large sum of $6 per week.

Like Benny Leonard and many other prominent boxers Jackson had a keen interest in the boxing game and he used to spend most of his spare time around the gymnasium and the old Fairmont Athletic Club, which was then the "garden" of New York.

Bagley was then handling a number of boxers and he saw some promise in the youngster and after some little training and tutoring he landed Jackson in a preliminary at the Fairmont, for which he received $9. His development was slow but he was carefully handled and brought along by shrewd management until 1917 when he became a headliner by knocking out Johnny Dundee in two minutes and thirty-six seconds of a bout in Philadelphia.

Dundee had never been knocked out before and he never has since that time. Jackson naturally was hailed as a prospective champion and bouts for big purses came thick and fast.

In the last three years, Bagley claims Jackson earned $250,000 of which $120,000 was brought in in thirteen months.

He began slipping last winter and perhaps he is passed the stage where he can improve, but he is still a good card and his earning power has by no means been stopped.

Benny Leonard, Jack Britton, Joe Lynch and other prominent New York boxers have become wealthy in their business because of a large personal following of friends that pack the house every time they work. Jackson, never popular, cashed in almost as much because the house was packed every time he showed with fans who came in the hope of seeing him get the worst of it.

Both Bagley and Jackson knew of the feeling against him and instead of working to overcome it they shrewdly played it up so that he became one of the best drawing cards in New York.

How much of an attraction Jackson was is shown in the figures presented by Bagley that in eight bouts in Madison Square Garden, he and his opponents drew in excess of $486,000. One bout with Dundee brought a gate of $46,000 from 14,000 spectators at prices of $1 to $5. Another bout with Eddie Fitzsimmons drew $66,000 and a match with Rocky Kansas brought in $88,000.

Bagley claims that their break was not caused by ill feeling and that they are still on good terms. Jackson wanted to make a trip to Australia and engage in some four-rounders in California and Bagley, having a big sale, could not afford the time, so he turned over a five year contract to Sammy Goldman, manager of Pete Herman, former bantamweight champion.

Herman by the way, is in bad shape in New York and is on the verge of total blindness. Several years ago a cataract developed on one of his eyes but he gamely stuck to his business against the advice of doctors and the results were so serious that the doctors now fear that they will not be able to save his eyes.

Herman has done well. He has made a lot of money and has invested it wisely, according to his friends, so that if he is forced to give up boxing his wife and two little girls will not be in need.

His wife insists that he shall retire from the ring if he does recover, but little Pete has an idea that he can win the bantam title again and make a record of having won a championship three times.

AMUSEMENTS

Musical Show Ends Today

"Echoes of Broadway," the musical show at the Princess will close their engagement here tonight with a complete change of program, and the show has been pronounced as the best the road show to visit Rushville in years, by the crowds that attended the opening nights.

Charlie (Slim) Timblin, the comedian and head liner for the company, is one of the best in the business and has kept the crowds in an uproar at all performances.

His "Baby Vamp" chorus is all that can be desired in a production of the kind—rather risqué as to costume, and rather riotous as to color. In duet, trio and chorus work they were equally good.

For an evening of mirth, and release from care—for a panacea from the melodramatic problem play "Echoes of Broadway" is more than successful.

In addition to the musical show the regular motion picture bill will be offered, and only one show is given, beginning at 7:15.

William Hodge in "For All Of Us"

The theatrical season in Indianapolis would be incomplete without the annual visit of William Hodge. This year occurs on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday—Nov. 13-14-15 at the Schubert-Murat Theatre.

"For All Of Us" is the title of Mr. Hodge's new vehicle. It is from the pen of the actor as were "The Road to Happiness," "Fixing Sister" and "A Cure for Curables," his offerings of the past three seasons, and according to the eastern reviewers where it has been seen, "For All Of Us" is the best of the series, having proved itself superior to anything he has done since "The Man From Home" which was one of the most sensationally successful plays in the history of the American theatre.

The story emphasizes the belief of Tom Griswald (Mr. Hodge) foreman of a gang of street laborers, that good health and happiness are the result of right thinking, and that disease of the mind and the body are curable by removing from thought all hate, passion and sin.

Fredrick Warren, enamoured of his stenographer, is found ill in his home refusing further ministrations of doctors and friends. His one desire is to live as he chooses with his stenographer who has become his nurse. Tom Griswald's song and cheer from the street below, come to the banker and he sends for him, the understanding as expressed by the ditch digger causes the banker to think and in order to free himself from the chains of sickness and sin he takes counsel from Griswald and works out his salvation.

Let Us Fix Up That Suit

A neat appearing suit doesn't necessarily mean that it is new.

Many a man who has come to us for a clean and press has been asked this very question, how-ever.

More than that—one of our regular jobs is mending tears and places where the fabric has pulled apart, in such a manner that they cannot be seen. One man after another has received months of wear out of a suit of clothes he thought ready for the "old clothes man."

No matter how the condition, bring in that suit. Let us fix it, or press it, or both. We'll frankly tell you if it's beyond hope.

HOW TWO WOMEN ESCAPED OPERATIONS

Doctor Advised Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Happy Results in Both Cases

St. Joseph, Missouri.—"Both of my sides swelled and hurt me so that I could not move or do any of my work. There was heavy pressure and pains through my lower organs and the doctor told me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for these troubles. He said I had this one chance, and if the Vegetable Compound did not help me nothing but an operation would. After taking several bottles I felt it was helping me and now I am able to do my own work. If my testimonial will help others I shall be glad for them to read it and hope your Vegetable Compound will do them as much good as it did me."—Mrs. WM. LOCKMAN, 513 N. 4th St., St. Joseph, Mo.

White Plains, N. Y.—"I had such a pain that I could hardly walk and the doctor said that I needed an operation. I was sick for a year before I started taking your medicine and I could not work. I saw your advertisement in a little book and that is how I came to take Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine. I have been taking the Vegetable Compound and Lydia E.

Pinkham's Blood Medicine, also Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and the capsules and prescription recommended. I am doing all my work and have gained twenty pounds. I am taking the medicines still but I feel fine. You have my permission to use this letter for the good of others."—Mrs. MARY MARK, 37 Hamilton Ave., White Plains, N. Y.

Some female troubles may through neglect reach a stage when an operation is necessary. But most of the commoner ailments are not the surgical ones; they are not caused by serious displacements, tumors, or growths, although the symptoms may appear the same. When distressing ailments first appear, take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve the present distress and prevent more serious troubles. Many letters have been received from women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after operations have been advised by attending physicians.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will be sent you free upon request. Write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts. This book contains valuable information.

FIRST XMAS SEAL SALE CHAIRMAN APPOINTED

ALL COUNTIES ORGANIZED

Indianapolis, Nov. 8.—Mrs. Lee Bowers, Huntington, holds the honor of being the first county Xmas Seal chairman appointed in the state, according to announcement today of Murray Auerbach, secretary of the Indiana Tuberculosis association. Plans for the 1922 sale to raise funds for next year's work against tuberculosis are well under way, Auerbach said. Sixty-six counties have already signed contracts with the state association for their supplies of seals.

Allen county which offered 1,500,000 seals was the first to requisition its supply, but was closely followed by Wells, ordering 100,000 and Bartholomew, ordering a quarter of a million. The Union county committee, with headquarters at Liberty, was the first organization to close its contract with the state association.

Practically all the sixty-six counties that decided on their campaigns for this year have already organized. Mrs. Bowers was the first county chairman named but her appointment reached state headquarters only a short time before two others—Mrs. J. H. Burton, Parke county and Mrs. E. B. Early of Bluffton. Early organization work, according to Auerbach augurs well for the success of this year's Xmas seal sale.

For Sale Used Automobiles

As state distributor for Haynes automobiles, a large number of used cars come into our possession. Only the best of these cars are brought to our Indianapolis Salesroom. Here they are completely over-hauled by skilled mechanics before being placed on our salesroom floor. The models consist of Haynes, Nash, Reo, Cole, Dodge and other standard makes and they are priced now far below their actual value. We solicit your inquiries either by mail or personal visit.

Economical Motor Car Repairs

It is wisdom to pay the price of a first-class job, but foolishness to pay more than the job is worth.

Our mechanics understand the business, work steadily and do no "stalling."

You pay only for the time actually consumed.
